MORGAN MCALLISTER

mpm18@uab.edu | 706.587.2576

Portfolio samples: https://mpm18.github.io/

PROFILE SUMMARY

Recent Health Informatics graduate with experience in health care settings and a lifelong love of pattern recognition. Independently created and implemented a successful database management plan for the UAB 1917 Clinic Cohort. Strong interest and proficiency in statistical analysis, process improvement, data modeling, and database management. Experienced in SQL, R, Tableau, Excel, and Power BI.

EDUCATION

University of Alabama at Birmingham	Birmingham, AL
Master of Science: Health Informatics	August 2020
Concentration: Data Analytics
GPA: 4.0, Class rank: 1

East Carolina University	Greenville, NC
Bachelor of Science: Health Services Management	May 2018
GPA: 3.94

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

UAB Research and Informatics Service Center	Birmingham, AL
Intern	Oct. 2019 – Aug. 2020

- Performed requirements gathering and developed data management plan and data visualization tools
- Incorporated Kaizen and Lean methodologies
- Developed system to create and manage documentation and master data for 1917 Clinic Cohort SQL data warehouse
- Developed governance policies and standards for the department

Carteret Health Care Quality Department	Morehead City, NC
Intern	Nov. 2017 – Feb. 2018

- Drafted Joint Commission ESC report
- Assisted in implementation and auditing of TJC policy and procedure changes
- Built Midas auditing tool for compliance tracking
- Participated in sub-internships with Compliance, Risk Management, Systems Management, Physician Credentialing, Medical Records, and Care Coordination and Community Health departments

HONORS & AWARDS

- Ranked first in MSHI graduating class
- Recognized as "a student who shows promise in the health informatics field" with the faculty-selected William W. Featheringill Scholarship in 2020
- Recipient of the TSYS Futures Scholarship x2